

1.1.33
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant

1. Be free Ted, free. Be free today and forevermore. Hemmed in by the paradigms of man who keep you operating at low levels of power and confidence, with little confidence in Me or you, not—no more, no longer.
2. Be free Ted, for the more freedom you operate in, the more freedom you can bring to My people. I want them free. I want them free. I want them free, for Me, for My purposes, for My designs, and their fulfillment.
3. Be very careful how you treat My lambs, for your greatest tests are ahead. That's why you must have relationships about you Ted, to help you and bless you and love you and challenge you and nurture you and correct you and rebuke you, if I tell them to.
4. If you have no one around you that I can speak to, who will rebuke you, if you err? Then how do you want Me to correct you? I have My ways and I have many ways I do that but Ted, most tender is the way I come through those who love you, who I speak to, who are already in relationship with you.
5. Ted, be strong, be tender, be loving, and let arrogance never be in your mouth, your eyes, your actions, your heart. Surround yourself with people who can rebuke you if I say to. And Ted, you listen to those I bring you and you cry out to Me, and even if they're wrong, you judge the sincerity of their heart, not the accuracy of the word.
6. You are forgiven of much and a forgiver you will always be of others. Now go and grow and mature and surround yourself with people of Me, with hearts for Me, and think not only persons of stature do My bidding—but all people of Me do My bidding—receive the words I give to one as I would give to another.
7. Tender, tender deliverer you are and you must be, and hurt not in your boldness for Me. No sharp tongue must you ever have. Love Ted. I am love. I am patient. I am kind. I am gentle. I am longsuffering, and Ted, you are to be also.
8. Move in Me, move in power. Receive these offers of help and blessing and I will bless them and I will bless you, for Ted, you free every person in your path, free every person that helps you. Increase their confidence. Pay those well that help you consistently. Bless them and receive them and free them and hold on to them never. For I shall bring you many to train for a time, to release in Me, that I will flourish and blossom forth in colors of beauty and majesty that will surpass you, and you will play your part, for you have humbled yourself before Me.
9. Train My little ones to pray and laugh and be free and roar and do what I place in their hearts, in networks of love, honor and glory, on foundations of purity, of skill, of mastery in their ability to hear My voice and operate in My world, My big world, to do so for others, for others, all their lives.

10. My design, My happiness, My hands, My feet, My voice, My smile, My tenderness, My patience, My gaze, My interest, My respect, Me—Me Ted, take Me to Mine and let them know My kindness and My honor and love, and let them know how I speak and how I come and I touch you and you tear, you cry, you shake as you weep sometimes in My presence, and how you cry and tear as you write My words sometimes, and how you seek Me and control and be careful with certain thoughts, and areas of thought. Ted, tell them.

11. Transparent be. You exalt yourself not by doing what I command you to do. You're being obedient. Be transparent and teach and tell and train others to be transparent for transparency brings freedom. Yes, it brings accountability. It brings maturity. It brings Me.

12. Ted, thank you for letting Me call your name so often. Thank you for writing it. Thank you for letting people know how much I want to call their name, to them, and speak to them in peaceful, tender words of love and nurture, for them and for those they touch, those they are in relationship with, those that I bring into relationship with them. Tell them, tell them, tell them.

13. And I will give you voice to tell them the things, the truth, the precepts, the ways I operate and what's important to Me. I will give you voice and I will give you many voices to help your voice say what I want said. I will bring you soon into relationships of networks you know nothing of, and I will speak and you will speak and I will speak through you and I will elevate you all, for you are trying to hear My voice and please Me, please the Father, please us in ways many don't understand, but you will teach them. You will voice to them My truth, My truths, My intimacy that I'm calling each one to.

14. And you shall be propelled at an accelerated pace and have openings to speak My voice and My words and that which I have given you, and those I have given you will come forth, for many will see themselves in your portrait and in the portraits you paint of them in them.

15. You, Ted, are a painter of freedom and you will paint My pictures that I give you, and words shall flow from Me to you, for you fear not, you fear not, you fear not obeying now, more than you fear making an error. And you will help many achieve that confidence as well.

16. Fear not, fear not. I call. I come and I come to those who are not afraid of Me. I come to those who are afraid of Me but once they look into My eyes and feel My touch, they know I come in love and tenderness. I come in joy and laughter and I come in relationship.

17. Tell all who want Me to come and replace their televisions with altars where they cry out to Me and let Me bring them freedom so that they can live the life I designed in them, for them, where they watch themselves experience their own great adventure, rather than being entertained to death watching someone else's adventure.

18. I come that people, lambs, children, all, may have life and life more abundantly, and life more abundantly is not spent in hours and hours in front of electronic devices that portend images and precepts and values of the kingdom not of My kingdom.

19. I speak and I want My people to speak and not sit idly by, while the short time they have here vanishes so rapidly. Oh, so many, so many have not a clue as to life and what I am and who I am and My values and what I want to give them and what I have for them if they would but come to Me and exchange their indoctrination for My truth.

20. Ted, tell them, tell them, and tell them, draw on your creativity and My creativity, and My creativity in you. And all those I bring you and all those you learn from, to tell My people how I love them, and how I care for them, and how so many have misinterpreted Me and caused Me pain and caused My people pain. My lambs, My lambs, My children, Me, Ted.

21. I am their father. I am the father of their spirit. I created them and gave them so much and I have relationships awaiting for them across boundaries no digital device can transcend.

22. I will raise, I will empower, I will move and bless and mature all who let Me and cry out to Me and I will take them on My wings to heights unknown, depths uncharted, and walk with them in worlds of relationships I have only for the sacred, only for the righteous, only for those who have paid a price to seek Me as pure gold, and more.

23. Those will I elevate and crown with more righteousness and power, and many will think them common folk, but Ted, they will be blind, for they have not cried out to Me, and refused Me, and horror will encompass them, while those that know Me will operate in power yet unknown to those who reject Me.

24. Relationships, networks, My world Ted, My world. You stated it correctly—My world. My world for their little, itty, bitty, tiny, nothing world. I expand, I increase, I advance, I grow, I mature and I do so in all who will let Me.

25. Have I said it enough? Have I said it clearly? Have I made Myself plain what I want to do in those who will let Me? Need I go on and on and on and say and example My hearts desire for you and those that will follow you and your quest to do what the Father does, to say what the Father says, to bring Me pleasure by doing what I'm doing, and what I want done?

26. Hold forth not, not in any area of your life, but go forth boldly and confidently that I am raising you up to empower freedom, freedom, Ted, freedom to reign, to come and reign in My people and network them in relationships that will spawn generational friendships with values and sinew of My spirit, to do and be and accomplish what I want done, said, spoken, produced, and accomplished, sayeth the Lord.

27. I put My stamp on this, My seal, My stamp and seal, as it were, on you and what you're doing and what I've called you to do, and those that bless you I will bless, for you are doing what I want done, and I will correct you and I will discipline you and I will judge you in ways and levels of heart, spirit, that you knew nothing of when you first began to pray those prayers.

28. Ted, I love you and I love them and I appreciate DeLayne and others and many others for what they will do. Not for you Ted, for Me. Remember, Me, Me, not you. You are My servant, My son, My friend. Keep it straight and be focused and not forgetful of what I have done and am doing and will do with you, in you, for you, Ted—for Me.

29. Now go and grow and enjoy Gary [Dundee] and tell him how much I love him, and that I appreciate his kindness to you, and to others in My body. I like him. I love him. I love him dearly and I appreciate him inviting you today. Go and laugh together and bless each other for life, for Ted, he is of Me and My seed and My blessing rests on him differently than you. I love him. I bless him and I bless him and I raise him up in many things, for he is opening to Me like never before, and I will make My face to shine upon him in blessing and honor and glory as He opens to Me and lets Me. I love him. Tell him I love him. Tell him I love him and I love him and I always have, and I always will, and he is forgiven and he is blessed, and he is Mine and I am his. Tell him and tell him and enjoy your time with him.

30. For Ted, I will take you to many, and many will want your blessing, but Ted, it's Me and it's My blessing and it's about Me and, lest you forget, I will remind you often and I will remind you through the leadership that I put around you, for your sake, for My sake, for I love you and I appreciate you writing and fearing Me more than man.

31. Thank you Ted. Thank you. Thank you and thank everyone you see for loving Me and opening to Me in the new things I am doing, and in the ways I am coming like never before in history.

32. I bless you. I exalt you for you exalt Me. Smile, laugh, enjoy, and trust her, trust her for I am with her and not forsaken her. She is My treasure. I will come forth in her as pure gold and all will know My hand is upon her. You shall see, so trust, trust, trust her to Me and exalt her for she shall exalt Me, and I will be pleased and you will be pleased.

33. Thank you, thank you. Thank you.
